Describe the project/program. (This proposal is a request of funds for....)

This request is in support of funding to organize and conduct Refuse To Be A Victim® (RTBAV) Seminars. RTBAV is a formal educational program of the National Rifle Association, Education & Training Division and is designed to provide people of all ages and backgrounds with the techniques, applications, strategies, and options that are available to help ensure their personal safety.

What are the project/program goals, objectives and activities?

The goal of Refuse To Be A Victim® Seminars is to provide unbiased, quality crime prevention and personal safety awareness training to the general public.

Who will carry out the goals, objectives and activities?

As an NRA certified Refuse To Be A Victim® Instructor, _____ accepts the responsibility of fulfilling the stated goals and objectives by presenting/teaching the proposed Seminar(s).

Describe how the project will benefit the community. What people/public group to benefit?

Refuse To Be A Victim® Seminars are designed to be provided as a public service benefit for the entire community. Many are conducted in conjunction with local law enforcement crime prevention and public relations policing initiatives.

Will a user fee be charged to participants? If so, what is the fee used for?

(If yes: a seminar tuition fee is charged based on the costs incurred to provide the program (student packets, refreshments, room rental, copying costs, instructor display table items). With financial help from The NRA Foundation, RTBAV Seminars can be provided at low cost (or no-charge) tuition rates for the benefit of all citizens in the community.

Describe how the project fits within the IRS category selected?

Refuse To Be A Victim® is an educational program of the NRA based on instruction and educational formats that present unbiased information designed to heighten an individual's awareness of safety strategies that can protect people from becoming victims of crime and criminal intent. Home security, technological security, protection systems, prevention strategies, self-defense options, psychology of predators, and mental preparedness are a few of the subjects covered during RTBAV Seminars.

How many people do you anticipate will benefit from this project?

An estimate of _____ people will be instructed at each Refuse To Be A Victim® Seminar.

How will you measure the impact?

Through analysis of the Participant Evaluations and mandatory attendance reports.

What do you want to happen as a result of this project?

Members of the community should be more aware, alert and safe in a variety of situations. They should develop their personal safety plan based on the information presented during the RTBAV Seminar.
