

Nomination Form

2010 Marion P. Hammer Woman of Distinction Award

Ms. Marion P. Hammer has influenced many in her fight to preserve Second Amendment freedoms. From her role as lobbyist in the passage of Florida's Right-to-Carry legislation, to her grassroots efforts in educating youth about firearm safety, ownership and responsibility, Ms. Hammer exemplifies activism. As the creator of the Eddie Eagle GunSafe® Program and first woman president of the National Rifle Association, she has significantly impacted her community, state and the nation. To honor her pioneering spirit, the National Rifle Association bestows the Marion P. Hammer Woman of Distinction Award in her name.

Candidates for this award shall exemplify two or more of the following criteria:

- Must be a current National Rifle Association member in good standing;
- On a the local, state and/or regional levels, must have demonstrated one or more of the following:
 - Outstanding performance in competitive shooting, outstanding dedication to hunting ethics and conservation, or outstanding promotion of recreational shooting activities;
 - Outstanding educational contributions to advancing the purposes and goals of the National Rifle Association, including appearances for the purpose of public education and/or significant writings;
 - Meritorious performance under perilous conditions through the lawful use of a firearm in defense of self and/or others;
 - Dedication to the protection of the Second Amendment through extensive legislative and/or legal contributions;
 - Outstanding volunteerism through personal involvement with, and promotion of, NRA programs and issues with significant recognized impact.

Nominations are to include a typed essay that addresses why the nominee should be chosen and other information that demonstrates the activities and accomplishments of the nominee. Nomination packets are to be limited to five pages. Do not submit original photographs, newsletters or articles. Please note: Women cannot be nominated for both this award and the Sybil Ludington Women's Freedom Award in the same year.

The NRA Women's Policies Committee will evaluate nominations. Winners will receive a certificate suitable for framing and a Crystal Triumphant Eagle sculpture. Please send nomination packets to:

NRA Women's Programs Department
Attention: Patty Zollman
11250 Waples Mill Road
Fairfax, Virginia 22030
1-703-267-1378

Nominations must be received by November 1, 2009.

Nominee Information

Name _____
Address _____
City and State _____
Telephone _____
Email Address _____
NRA membership number (mandatory) _____

Nominator Information

Name _____
Address _____
City and State _____
Telephone _____
Email Address _____
Nomination Date _____